From the Pastor's Desk...

Last month, our Mission Board shared an honor given to us at David's Church from Kettering's Partners for Healthy Youth for our work with the Peanut Butter/Backpack program and the summer feeding of Kettering youth living in poverty. The large pop-up poster celebrates one of the 40 Developmental Assets that the Partners hope to see instilled in our local youth. For our part, we celebrated asset #9, "Service to Others."

Around our house, we've been aware of the 40 Assets since back when our older children were in middle school. For the longest time, I've had the opinion that besides healthy schools, good community organizations like Boy & Girl Scouts or the YM and YWCA, and activities that invite kids to explore the arts, music or sports, The Church provides a helpful, nurturing environment for families, their children and even their young people who like to think they've outgrown Sunday School, and help to supply many of the desired assets in an environment that is laid back and welcoming.

In the first place, The Church provides a natural supportive environment for families, no matter where their children are in the growth cycle, from the nursery freeing parents up for time in worship and commiserating with other parents and adults, to confirmation and youth programming that engages your kids in environments where they are developing faith values, self-esteem and the kind of positive peer environments that help young people make the right kinds of decisions. And, one special asset – other supportive relationships – seem to come naturally in a faith community. Children take on extra sets of informal grandparents, as a host of supportive adults and mentors take a real interest in the child's growth and nurturing. In the safe and caring environment of the congregation, young people see that they are valued and important to a whole host of folk and not just Mom or Dad.

A religious community can bring a centering perspective to a child or family that is overwhelmed by the demands of school, work, etc. In the comforting confines of a Sunday School or Confirmation class, or arriving for a church dinner or Sunday morning worship, we show up to find that folk are glad to see us, and are interested in how our week has been going, how we are doing in school, how was that band concert, etc.

There are a variety of people who have looked at the number of churches that are in decline, some even forced to close, and they have imagined a future when there won't be anymore churches, where many congregations will find they are no longer sustainable. And while we would be foolish to pretend we are immune to the societal changes and cultural forces that have contributed to the decline of the Church's relevance in the larger world of human experience, it seems to me that we will not only exist but thrive as long as we are living into the values at the heart of our identity, as the Community of Christ, and put our lives where our longings and desires point us.

Now don't get me wrong, I know that the first and primary purpose of the Church is to proclaim the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and that news is that God's love is expressed in a spirit of radical inclusion and extravagant hospitality. It is our mission to express this good news in word and in deed – So on Sunday mornings in worship, we proclaim the Gospel in preaching and singing the hymns of faith and praise, in sharing the sacraments, in witnessing to the transforming power of God's love in our lives. First and foremost, that is what the Church is to be about.

But, along with, and perhaps alongside this other monumental task and responsibility to share this message of love, hope, peace and joy, is the community that grows up in response to this message and as an embodiment of the very things we teach and preach. And as by-products go, the community of Christ that is the Church is a pretty beautiful thing, when you take the time to be present, when you open yourselves up to those who are engaged side-by-side with you and your family in practicing these principles of loving acceptance and nurturing care.

Which is to say, besides all the talk of salvation and spiritual enrichment, there are some real benefits in just being in the Church, being here together. As I look down the list of the 40 Developmental Assets, those things we want for all of our children, and frankly need for ourselves as well, many of them just naturally happen as a result of being present, being engaged in the community of faith.

Families get supported; children experience adult relationships with folk other than their parents who are Sunday School teachers, mentors, or adopted grandparents that live nearby when one's biological extended family may live a few states away; caring neighborhoods develop; youth are valued in community; and contribute as resources; learn service to others; participate in creative activities, youth programs, and this thriving religious community. We share positive values like caring, concern for equality and social justice, integrity, honesty, responsibility and restraint. We support development of social competencies, and support a positive identity and sense of self... just go down the list, and at least 20 or more of the 40 assets are present when one avails one's self of life in and around the Church.

We want to bring our children to church so that they hear the Good News, and grow in faith, hope and love, but we also ought to recognize the being in and around the life of our congregation is good for all involved, that it provides many of the necessary assets for a good, full and meaningful life.

Your pastor and friend,
Brian Q. Newcomb

Notes from Rev. Michelle Wilkey

Steve Jobs once said, “The ones who are crazy enough to think they can change the world, are usually the ones that do.” Well, you can call me crazy because I do think that all of us have the ability to make this world a better place. My deepest desire in life is to be able to leave the world a little better than how I found it. There are many ways that we can work together to be the change that we wish to see in the world. I believe the words of Micah 6.8 give us a picture of how we should spend our days. “He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

In April, the youth are going to be participating in World Vision’s 30 Hour Famine. There is a powerful verse in the Gospel of Matthew about feeding the hungry. Matthew 25.35 states, “For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me.” The 30 Hour Famine is our way of feeding the hungry and also changing the world in the process. Now you might be wondering what the 30 Hour Famine is all about. Let me give you some details.

World Vision’s 30 Hour Famine gives students a chance to help overcome hunger by going without food so others don’t have to. Youth groups are invited to sign up for a National Famine Event and during the Famine weekend, students get up close and personal with hunger by going 30 hours without food. World Vision provides loads of activities to help make this a totally fun, educational, and life-changing experience. Our 30 Hour Famine weekend will take place on April 22-23.

This year we are setting our fundraising goal higher than it ever has gone before. If we are able to raise $10,000, then the teens will pick out a design and I will get a tattoo. I am passionate about changing the world and I believe we will make a substantial difference by raising this much money. It is said that for every $35 that we are able to raise; that we can feed and care for a child for a whole month. So if we are able to raise $10,000 then that would be enough to feed and care for 285 children for a month!!! Just imagine all the hungry mouths we could feed! If you would like to donate toward our 30 Hour Famine, then you could make your check out to David’s UCC and in the memo line write “30 Hour Famine.” If you wish to donate online, here is the link:

<http://youth.worldvision.org/index.cfm?fuseaction=donorDrive.team&teamID=12276>.

There is a poster in my office of Gandhi and below the picture of him is a quote; which are words I seek to live by. Gandhi says, “Live as if you were to die tomorrow. Learn as if you were to live forever.” I take these words to heart and I am constantly seeking ways to improve on who I am as not only a pastor but as a human being. With that in mind, I recently enrolled in an ongoing, online course titled, “Youth Ministry that Transforms your Whole Church.” This course is sponsored by the Center for Progressive Renewal Youth Ministry and there are 10 different modules and in each module there are engaging videos, readings, online resources, and discussions that will help me incorporate what I am learning into my ministry practices.

C.S. Lewis said, “Christianity, if false, is of no importance, and if true, of infinite importance. The only thing it cannot be is moderately important.” For the course, I am reading a book called “Almost Christian: What the Faith of our Teens is telling the American Church.” This book is written by Kenda Creasy Dean. In the book, the author talks about a new belief system titled Moralistic Therapeutic Deism. This is basically the term used to describe a low commitment to faith. The main premise of this belief system is that religion helps you do good and feel good and God is merely in the background. It’s when Christianity is just considered moderately important and not of utmost importance. C.S. Lewis tells us that Christianity can’t be moderately important but for many in our day it is.

It is my desire to not just merely expose the youth to faith but to actually teach them and model a life-changing faith for them and one way I can do this is through the 30 Hour Famine. Just by participating in the 30 Hour Famine, the youth will have an opportunity to change lives. They will be helping to feed hundreds of starving people throughout the world.

In the book, Kenda uses baseball for an illustration about teaching faith to others. If I were to teach someone how to play baseball; I wouldn’t just take them to a baseball game. I would want to get a baseball glove and bat and actually step out onto the field with them and journey alongside that person as they learn the game of baseball. The same can be said of teaching faith to others. If we want to teach someone the faith and way of Jesus; we shouldn’t just take them to church. We should be willing to walk alongside beside that person in their faith journey. This is what I seek to do with everyone in the congregation. I desire to journey alongside everyone in their faith journeys. I think it absolutely amazing that we get to grow and struggle in our faith journeys together!!

I wanted to end with a quote from Nadia Bolz Weber. She shares a powerful quote about what life is about and why every single moment is worth living. Nadia writes, "And this is it. This is the life we get here on earth. We get to give away what we receive. We get to believe in each other. We get to forgive and be forgiven. We get to love imperfectly. And we never know what effect it will have for years to come. And all of it...all of it is completely worth it."

Blessings to Everyone,
Rev. Michelle Wilkey

One Great Hour of Sharing

The One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) special mission offering of the United Church of Christ involves you in disaster, refugee/immigration, and development ministries throughout the world. When a disaster strikes or people are displaced or made refugees by violence or extreme poverty, you are part of the immediate response and of the long-term recovery. Through OGHS you engage in holistic development programs including health care, education, agriculture, food sustainability, micro-financing and women's empowerment. Because the UCC relates in mutual partnership to churches and organizations through Global Ministries and worldwide response & recovery networks, your contributions to One Great Hour of Sharing put you in the right place at the right time for the relief, accompaniment and recovery of the most vulnerable. You meet immediate needs and you address the underlying causes that create those needs in the first place.

We will be collecting this offering on Sunday, March 6. There are three ways to give - envelopes will be in the pews on that Sunday, you can mail a check to the church and note "OGHS" in the memo line, or you can make a donation on our website (www.davidsucc.org) and click the red "Donate" button on the home page, and then One Great Hour of Sharing us under the Mission grouping. Thank you.

Serving at Gateway

The first Sunday of every month, David's Church is responsible for providing and serving a meal at the Gateway Shelter for Men. This meal, which consists of meat loaf, green beans, mashed potatoes, rolls, salad, and lemonade, is one of the favorites served at the shelter. In the Narthex, you will find a sign-up sheet for food that is needed as well as an opportunity to be a server at the shelter. Our next serving is Sunday, March 6. Many items are still needed. Please take a moment to see where you can help!

Do you know everyone, by name, at church? Neither do we. Please be considerate to others and wear your name tag at church so that others can greet you by name.
If you have misplaced your name tag and need a new one, contact the church office, 434-2131. Thanks!

Pastoral & Staff Relations Committee (PRC)

David's Pastoral & Staff Relations Committee (PRC) is a standing committee of our church that seeks to support and maintain an open and healthy relationship between the pastors, staff, and members of the congregation. PRC serves in two main ways: 1) as an advisory group to the pastors and music director, and 2) as support for their leadership. As an advisory group, the PRC shares with the pastors and music director ideas, hope/dreams, expectations, and concerns of the congregation. As support for the pastors and music director, PRC interprets their roles, functions, and needs to the congregation.

David's PRC operates as an independent group separate from Elders and the Personnel Committee. Because the effectiveness of the PRC rests heavily upon trust built and maintained between the pastors, music director, and the Committee, members pledge to maintain strict confidentiality concerning the content of the meetings and discussions. Three separate groups have been established to support Pastor Brian, Pastor Michelle, and Music Director, Tim Williams.

David's Quilting Ministry

After serious discussion and research, David's Quilters began the new year dedicating their Tuesday quilting days to creating quilts for patients at Dayton Veteran's Administration Hospice.

It's been exciting to pool our resources and gifts to create patriotic quilts for people who have served and protected our country through military service.

If you'd like to join the fun and fellowship of creating these quilts, we invite you to Tuesday quilting days which begin at 10 a.m. Some stay till noon while others bring a sack lunch and stay into the afternoon. If you have never quilted but are inspired by this project to learn, we're happy to have you join us and we'll share our knowledge.

If you quilt and would like to create quilts for this ministry but can't make Tuesdays, let us know of your interest and we'll make sure your contributions are included in dedication and distribution.

We welcome cash donations to purchase materials needed to continue this ministry. Checks can be made out to David's Church with "Quilting Ministry" in the memo line.

We're really excited about our new direction and the opportunity to combine all of our skills for such a worthy cause. Hope you'll want to join us, too!

Dotti Ankeney, Lynn Bender, Roselyn Faulkner, Anne Johnson, Debbie McCoy, Christy Mullin

Game Night

Attention all Gamers! From 7-10 p.m. on March 11 come to The Grove (hosted by Jana Lehman) for Game Night. Bring a snack, BYOB, your favorite games, and be prepared to have fun playing board games or card games like euchre, double pinochle, or canasta.

Pastor Brian's Bible Study

Pastor Brian heard a lot of interest as the class in the Gospel of Luke was wrapping up last year, in continuing the study in the Apostle's second work, The Book of Acts. Once again, we'll be using the text produced by The Kerygma Program, for their fourteen week study, "Into the World; The Acts of the Apostles," which covers the history of the early Church and the spread of the Gospel by Christ's Disciples and friends, following the death and resurrection of Jesus. The price for the Resource Book and study guide is $22, and we anticipate spouses/partners sharing one text. Classes will start on the Monday following Lenten Specials, March 14, from 7 to 8:30 pm, and since it is a long study, we'll negotiate the Monday night calendar after folk in the class get a sense of the reading and expectations. You can turn in your check, made out to David's UCC, with "Acts class" in the memo, by Sunday, Feb. 28, so we have time for shipping and handling. Childcare is available.

SALT

The Summer Adult Leadership Program (SALT) at David's United Church of Christ was created to provide a) spiritual growth, b) leadership development, and c) education about the various functions and workings of David's as well as the overall ministry of the United Church of Christ. The program starts June 1, 2016 and ends August 1, 2016. The program is designed as an internship opportunity for college age students interested in the leadership of the church, exploring their own core beliefs and spiritual boundaries as well as developing their leadership skills for service to others. Members of David's as well as relatives of David's members are eligible to apply. Applications and a position description are available in the office or upon request from Debra Monk at debra@monkshack.com and are due on or before April 4, 2016.

New Member Orientation

If you would like to become a member or you are just interested in learning more about David's and the United Church of Christ, we invite you to come to an orientation meeting in the church conference room following second service Sunday, March 13! We will be taking in new members on Sunday, April 3.

Call the church office, 434-2131, to order.

Peanut Butter Needed!

Thank you all for helping with the Kettering Backpack Program. This ensures that needy students will not go hungry over any given weekend. A backpack is sent home with the kids each week filled with several food items. Please remember to pick up a few extra jars of peanut butter (16 or 18 oz.) when you do your grocery shopping, and place them in the orange bucket in the Narthex. Thanks!

Home Communion

Pastor Brian and Pastor Michelle will be visiting with and serving communion to our many members who are unable to worship with us during the holiday season. If you, or someone you know, would like to receive communion, call the church office at 434-2131. Visits will take place the week of March 7.

We are also in need of volunteers to assist the pastors with Home Communion. This includes meeting the pastors at church, driving with them to various shut-ins, visiting with the shut-ins, and reading Bible passages during the communion service. We ask that you set aside a 2-3 hour time period, one afternoon, during the week of Home Communion.

Dear David's Church Family,

I want you to know how much I appreciate the extremely generous Love Offering gift I received in December. I consider it an honor to play music for the most welcoming, affirming congregation in south Dayton. May we continue to grow in the fruit of the spirit during 2016.

Fondly,
